Overview

The University of the South Pacific was set up in 1968 to educate students from its 12 member countries namely Cook Islands, Republic of Fiji Islands, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Nauru, Niue, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Tonga, Tuvalu and Vanuatu. Research has shown that students from these 12 member countries learn different mathematics curriculum at high school level and take different university entrance exams. Due to these differences the Faculty of Science, Technology and Environment has developed the Online Mathematics Diagnostic Tool (OMDT) to help bridge any numeracy gap that students may have. This is very important for the Faculty because most of its courses have some percentage of mathematics.
Introduction

What is OMDT?
