

Graduate Outcome: Pacific Consciousness

Graduates will recognize the cultural heritage and diversity of Pacific societies for sustainable development in a contemporary environment.

Criteria	Benchmark	Milestone	Capstone
Respect for the cultural heritage and diversity of Pacific societies	Recognizes the cultural heritage and diversity of Pacific societies.	Examines the cultural heritage and diversity of Pacific societies.	Formulates a position on the cultural heritage and diversity of Pacific societies.
Relationship between one's culture and one's position in the world	Identifies other cultural worldviews ¹ and questions own assumptions.	Interprets intellectual and emotional dimensions of more than one cultural worldview.	Evaluates intercultural experiences using one's perspective and other worldviews.
Integration of traditional and contemporary practices to sustain Pacific societies	Identifies the context of traditional and contemporary practices in community activities.	Evaluates traditional and contemporary practices in community activities.	Integrates traditional and contemporary practices for sustainable development of the Pacific.

¹ Cultural worldview is in relation to history, values, politics, communication styles, economy, beliefs and practices, as well as global values such as human rights.

© 2017 by the University of the South Pacific. The Graduate Outcome rubric on Pacific Consciousness is made available under the Creative Commons-Attribution ShareAlike 4.0 International (CC BY-SA 4.0) license <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>