Farewell- Madam Dame Meg Taylor

The USP Students' Council joins the Pacific Islands Forum Members' in farewelling Madam Dame Meg Taylor, who has just completed her term as SG as of 21st May 2021.

Our student leaders across the region deeply appreciate and commend the bold leadership of Madam Taylor at the Forum Secretariat and in driving the regionalism agenda under the Pacific Regionalism Framework.

Madam Taylor has undoubtedly created meaningful spaces within the Blue Pacific Region for student and youth leaders to engage with and contribute towards the Forums work across various issues such as building resilience, sustainable development and good governance.

The USP Students' Council further acknowledges Madam Taylor's enormous contribution towards the empowerment of women in taking up leadership positions in their societies. The region, under the Forums banner, during her term, has achieved a milestone as Madam Taylor lead the Forum Secretariat in coordinating the implementation of the Forum decision's under the Framework through an all-inclusive and a multifaceted approach.

We remain confident in her work and the Forums progress and together, we will continue the journey for a stronger and united Blue Pacific Region.

As we say goodbye to Madam Taylor, we remain connected with her in our spirit of One Ocean One People One Voice and One Journey!

Good luck Madam Taylor!
