All applicants must write a brief statement of 500-1000 words. Include any information that would be of interest to the admissions committee in evaluating your application. Explain why you want to apply for ICM. How would spending a semester at another USP campus complement your academic experience to date? What are your expectations for personal growth and change through ICM? How does this fit in with your short and long-term objectives? How would you promote USP? Also discuss why you are a strong candidate for this study abroad experience?
